Numb. 9335.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 5, to Tuesday January 8, 1754.

Conſtantinople, November 6.

SEVERAL Ambaſſadors and Miniſters of Chriſtian Powers having complained to the Porte, that the Regency of Algiers have of late paid very little Regard to their Treaties: The Grand Seignor, after conſidering the ſaid Complaints, has declared to the ſaid Ambaſſadors and Miniſters, that for the future he will give no Manner of Protection to the ſaid Regency, in caſe they do not punctually fulfil their Engagements with the Chriſtian Powers, and ſeverely puniſh all the Officers of their Cruizers who ſhall not ſtrictly conform to their Inſtructions; and his Sublime Highneſs has ordered this Declaration to be diſpatched immediately to the Regency of Algiers.

Moſcow, Nov. 26. The Empreſs has been a little indiſpoſed for ſome Days paſt with a Cold, but we hope it will be attended with no bad Conſequences. They have conſiderably augmented the Number of Workmen employed in rebuilding that Part of the Palace which was lately burnt down; and as they are ordered to work both Day and Night, 'tis imagined it will be ready for the Reception of her Imperial Majeſty in about a Fortnight; in the mean while ſhe propoſes taking a Tour, if her Health will permit, to the Monaſtery of Troitzka, in which ſhe will be accompanied by the Great Duke and Great Dutcheſs. On Thurſday laſt Count Beſtucheff gave an elegant Entertainment to Count Eſterhaſi, the new Ambaſſador from Vienna, to which ſeveral of the Nobility and General Officers were invited. The Weather proves milder in theſe Parts than ever was known at this Time of the Year, we having not as yet had the leaſt Appearance of Froſt or Snow.

Rome, Dec. 10. The Pope has appointed M. Finochietti, heretofore Governor of Civita Vecchia, to be Governor of the Province of Froſinone; M. Maffaei to be Governor of Viterbo; M. Bolognini to be Governor of Ancona; and M. Vinci to be Governor of Spoletto. The Poſt of Inquiſitor of Malta is given to M. Salviati, in the Room of M. Paſſionie, who is appointed Vice-Legate of Avignon. A few Days ago Cardinal Monti was ſeized with an Apoplectick Fit, and as he is far advanced in Years, 'tis fear'd the next Fit may go hard with him. The King of the Two Sicilies has already laid before the Pope the Names of three of his Subjects, out of whom one is to be named to fill up the Archbiſhoprick of Palermo. We have received Advice from Nettuno, that an armed Veſſel, which ſailed lately from the Port of Anzio, has attacked and taken, after a ſmart Engagement, one of the Barbary Corſairs.

Leghorne, Dec. 10. The Navigation of this Port was greatly interrupted all laſt Month by tempeſtuous Weather, but the Sea being now calm, Navigation and Commerce go on again as before. We are inform'd by our laſt Advices from Corſica, that the Malecontents continue to act againſt each other with great Fury; and that the Diviſions and Factions run ſo high amongſt them at preſent, that neither of them will hearken to any Propoſals of Accommodation.

Petersbourg, Dec. 10. According to the laſt Advices we received from Moſcow, her Imperial Majeſty will not return to this City till the Month of May next.

Copenhagen, Dec. 15. M. Coyemans, the Dutch Reſident, having been appointed Envoy Extraordinary from the States General to this Court, he had Yeſterday his firſt Audience of the King in that Quality. The two Ships belonging to our Aſiatick Company, bound for China, are ready to put to Sea with the firſt fair Wind. A few Days ago M. Laub, the King's firſt Phyſician, died here ſuddenly, but 'tis not as yet known who is to ſucceed him.

Prague, Dec. 18. Laſt Week a ſevere Froſt ſet in here, by which the Waters of the Moldau are already frozen ſo thick as to bear all Sorts of Carriages; and for two or three Days paſt there has fallen ſuch vaſt Quantities of Snow, that all the Roads are become almoſt impaſſable, which makes the Arrival of Couriers, and even of the common Poſts, at preſent very uncertain. They continue to raiſe Recruits for compleating pleating all the Regiments quartered in this Kingdom.

Frankfort, Dec. 24. Recruiting goes on with great Succeſs in this City and its Neighbourhood, for the Imperial Troops, ſeveral conſiderable Bodies of whom have lately marched from hence. They write from Manheim, that Count Leerodt, Grand Marſhal of the Court to the Elector Palatin, died on the 19th Inſtant, after a ſhort Illneſs.

Bruſſels, Dec. 26. We hear the 9th of next Month is appointed for renewing the Conferences, in order to proceed on the Buſineſs for regulating the new Barrier and Tariff.

Hague, Jan. 1. This Day her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, and the young Prince Stadtholder, received the Compliments of the Foreign Miniſters, and the principal Members of the Regency, on the New Year. They write from Utrecht, that the Waters of the River Lecq have fallen conſiderably, ſo that all their Fears, for the Safety of their Dykes, are now intirely diſſipated.

FOR the Benefit of Mankind, and in Juſtice to Dr. JAMES's Fever Powder, I deſire you would publiſh the following Caſe, of which I was an Eye-witneſs.

Sir Harry Hicks, of Chigwell in the County of Eſſex, Bart. was, on the Morning of the 18th of October laſt, (and in the 88th Year of his Age) ſeized with a ſudden Deprivation of the Uſe of all his Limbs and Faculties, though he was but a few Minutes before in good Health. He was immediately carried to his Bed, where he lay quite inſenſible for ſix and thirty Hours, and had all the Symptoms of a ſevere Fever, attended with an exceſſive Pain from the right Hip downwards. About Two o' Clock on Wedneſday, being the 10th of October, he took a Doſe of Dr. JAMES's Fever Powder, which excited a Sweat, and gave him immediate Relief: He continued taking the ſaid Powder in ſmall Quantities for two or three Days, and perfectly recovered.
